LOCAL MATTERS.

Persons leaving the city during the summer can have the Gazette mailed to them free of charge.

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.—Notwithstanding the very hot weather, there were tolerably large congregations at the various churches yesterday.

At Christ Church, in the morning, Rev. R. D. Roller read the service and Rev. Frank Stringfellow preached; in the evening, Rev. J. J. Gravett read the service and Rev. John McNabb preached.

At St. Paul's Church, in the morning, Rev. John K. Mason preached. All of these gentlemen are members of the class ordained at the Seminary on Friday last.

The afternoon service at St. Paul's Church has been discontinued until further notice. At the Union Presbyterian Church, Rev. C. R. Van Ramondt preached, both morning and night.

At the M. E. Church South, Rev. A. W. Wilson preached in the morning, and Rev. Nelson Head, P. E., in the evening. There was no service at the Baptist Church either morning or night.

At Grace Church, Rev. R. D. Roller read the service and Rev. Frank Stringfellow preached. E. Randall, "the prison evangelist," held an open-air meeting at the corner of King and St. Asaph streets about nine o'clock last night, attracting quite a crowd.

The open-air meeting at the tunnel was well attended, and among those who took part in it were Rev. Messrs. Dime and Stringfellow.

CUTTING AFFAIRS.—A party of men from this city and another from Washington got into a dispute at Marshall Hall, yesterday, in the course of which there were several pretty rough hand to hand fights.

The only damage to Alexandrians, so far as known, was that received by George Laycock, who was severely cut on the breast and shoulders.

Another outdoor case occurred at the canal basin this morning. It appears that a man named Frank Kirkpatrick and another canal boatman, whose name was not ascertained, had a dispute as to the precedence of their boats in passing through the locks during which the latter drew a pocket knife and cut Kirkpatrick in the fleshy part of the arm.

The wound, which was about two inches long, was dressed by Dr. Stabler, and is not considered dangerous.

MISS POWELL'S SELECT SCHOOL.—The closing exercises of Miss Powell's Select School for young ladies took place on Thursday evening last. The school room was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and crowded with the young ladies, beautifully dressed in white, and their friends.

After having some certificates of distinction had been awarded to those who merited them for diligence and scholarship during the session, a delightful entertainment was served, and the exercises were concluded with music—vocal and instrumental.

Miss Mary J. Stringfellow, of this city, the only graduate, received her diploma and a handsome gold medal in the form of a cross, with the warm congratulations of the principal and her friends. The principal and assistants were the recipients of elegant presents, as tokens of regard and appreciation, from their numerous pupils.

HONORS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.—At the closing exercises of the Episcopal High School, near this city, on Wednesday last, the highest honor of the school, the Madeira prize, was won by J. Stewart McGeehe, of Louisiana, and J. Samuel Spencer, of West Virginia. Mr. Spencer also received the Brelady prize medal for mathematics. The D'Almeida prize medal for classics was taken by Joseph John Hammond, of Baltimore, (a great-nephew of Bishop Johns), and the Blackford prize medal for English composition by L. W. Lynn F. White, of Richmond (the son of the Bishop). The classical medal, the gift of a former headmaster, was taken this year for the first time.

PARDONED.—The woman, Virginia Deavers, who was sentenced in April last, by the Corporation Court of this city, to five years imprisonment in the penitentiary, for grand larceny, has been conditionally pardoned by Gov. Kemper.

In granting the pardon, the Gov. Kemper, "On the recommendation of the judges, prosecuting attorney, all the members of the jury, and a large number of good citizens, and in consideration of the broken health of the prisoner and circumstances mitigating her guilt, she is pardoned on condition that she be imprisoned in the jail of Alexandria city for twelve months from this date."

THE HEAT.—The weather yesterday was decidedly the warmest we have experienced this summer. Under the influence of the sun's rays the streets in the afternoon were almost deserted, except by the Washingtonians, or, as they are called, "the heat."

Large numbers came down by the boats. The wharves were apparently the most favored spots, especially those having shelter from the sun, and they were crowded with people enjoining what breezes they could get off the river. For sleeping purposes, last night was a decided failure, the extreme heat making sleep almost impossible until towards morning.

ASSIGNMENT OF MINISTERS.—The mini-ter assigned on Friday last at the Episcopal Theological Seminary are understood to have been assigned as follows: Rev. R. S. Barrett, to Stafford; Rev. G. S. Gibbs to Pulaski; Rev. J. J. Gravett, Jr., to Hampton; Rev. R. F. Jackson, Jr., to Wheeling; Rev. W. S. Jones to Fauquier; Rev. J. K. Mason to Shenandoah; Rev. Chas. Morris to Ashland; Rev. C. C. Randolph to Matthews; Rev. R. D. Roller to Hanover; Rev. T. Spencer to Petersburg; Rev. F. Stringfellow to Powhatan; and Rev. A. Ware to Bedford. Rev. John McNabb is understood to have chosen the foreign mission field.

THE HARRY LODGE.—The new steamer Harry Lodge, Capt. James Quentin, made an excursion trip to Marshall Hall yesterday, having on board a number of gentlemen who went down upon the invitation of Captain Quentin. The Lodge, which was formerly the Fairy, has been entirely rebuilt at the Marine railway, and presents a very neat and substantial appearance. Captain Quentin is one of the most popular and popular steamboat captains on the river, and will no doubt make his new boat equally popular. On the trip down yesterday an elegant collation was served.

NOT THAT KIND.—The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appeal, in noticing the conditional pardon of Virginia Deavers, says: "If the Alexandria jail is no better than the Richmond jail, Virginia will swap the devil for a witch." But ours is not that kind of a jail. Our Sergeant keeps everything in apple pie order, in fact so nice that some of our noted characters prefer being in jail to being free.

POLICE REPORT.—Affairs have been very quiet at police headquarters since last report: Robert Curtis, for assault and battery, was fined and discharged.

Three market men, for disorderly conduct and fighting in the market, were discharged, one being fined.

Three lodgers were at the station house on Saturday night, and three last night.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

From Washington.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 26, 1876.—The Senate was occupied during the morning hour with the consideration of the District Tax bill.

The bill was supported by Mr. Sherman, Mr. Lyman and others, and opposed by Mr. Hamilton, of Texas, and others.

Mr. Hamilton especially opposed the exemption of churches from taxation, contending that churches were private property, which sold their pews to the highest bidder and gave no one a seat except by courtesy.

They should be taxed as other property. At the close of the morning hour the bill was laid aside.

The Committee on Appropriations reported the Army Appropriation bill, which adds $3,300,000 to the appropriations made by the House.

The bill was discussed at length.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

In the House, to-day, the Clerk was authorized to notify the President and the Senate of the election of Mr. Saylor as Speaker pro tem. of the House.

The states were then called for bills and joint resolutions, but none were introduced from Virginia.

Under this call a bill was introduced for the further redemption of United States legal-tenders.

A resolution that, when Congress adjourns on the 1st of July, it be until the 4th, on which day both branches shall meet in Independence Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, and then adopt suitable resolutions in commemoration of the Centennial year of the Republic, was referred to the Committee on the Centennial.

A bill to repeal the Resumption act of January 14, 1875, was introduced and the previous question thereon demanded, but the House refused to second the demand by a vote of 77 to 100, and the bill went over under the rules.

Mr. Randall, from the Conference Committee on the Legislative, Judicial and Executive Appropriation bill, reported that the committee had been unable to agree, and asked for another committee of conference, which was appointed.

A joint resolution to repeal the 3rd section of the Resumption act was objected to and went over.

A bill instructing the Committee on Banking and Currency to report a bill in reference to legal-tenders and the Resumption act, was introduced by Mr. Springer, of Illinois, pending the discussion of a point of order on which, a radical member moved that the House adjourn, and called the ayes and noes, when the motion was negatived—ayes, 8; noes, 179.

A resolution was introduced to provide against any embarrassment on account of the failure of any of the appropriation bills, by continuing in operation the provisions of the existing bills until the regular annual bills are passed, but the House refused to second the demand for the previous question—ayes, 57; noes, 112.

The House passed a bill removing the political disabilities of W. A. Webb, of Virginia, and a bill for the construction of a pontoon bridge across the Mississippi at LaCrosse City, Wis.

ST. LOUIS CONVENTION.

Nothing of special note from St. Louis to-day. A dispatch just received says the Massachusetts delegation are a unit for Tilden.

THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The Herald's St. Louis special says: "The following is the count of votes for Mr. Tilden on the first ballot, as given by his friends at the Tilden headquarters: It might from its source be supposed to represent the extreme view of his hope, but it omits several States that it is believed will give him a majority: Alabama 16, Arkansas 12, California 12, Colorado 6, Connecticut 6, Florida 8, Georgia 10, Illinois 32, Iowa 22, Kentucky 24, Maine 14, Massachusetts 26, Michigan 20, Minnesota 10, Mississippi 16, Missouri 14, Nebraska 6, Nevada 6, New Hampshire 10, New York 70, North Carolina 12, Oregon 6, Rhode Island 8, South Carolina 12, Texas 16, Vermont 10, Virginia 10, Wisconsin 18.

Mr. Tilden's opponents naturally took a different view of his count from almost every State, and deny him many that his friends claim. Their computation is as follows: Arkansas 12, California 8, Colorado 6, Connecticut 12, Illinois 10, Kentucky 12, Maine 14, Maryland 8, Minnesota 6, Mississippi 16, Missouri 10, Nebraska 6, Nevada 6, New Hampshire 10, New York 70, North Carolina 12, Oregon 6, Rhode Island 8, South Carolina 12, Texas 16, Vermont 10, Virginia 10, Wisconsin 18.

The full vote, counting one vote for each delegate is 738. If we subtract from the votes of D. Lawrence, Maryland, Indiana, New Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania, as States with candidates, admitting that Maryland may adhere to Bayard, this lessens the number by 172 and leaves 566. Of these Tilden's opponents admit that he will get 266; of the remaining 300 it is a reasonable certainty that he will get one half. He will thus have, by reasonable computation, 416 votes, or only 76 short of two-thirds.

It is believed that if Tilden manifests strength some portion of the votes backed up in the States that stand by the candidates will go to him. The eastern vote kept out of the general movement in that way may determine his victory against Hendricks.

The anti-Tilden men count the votes of Mr. Hendricks as follows: Alabama 20, California 4, Illinois 4, Indiana 30, Iowa 22, Kansas 10, Kentucky 12, Maryland 4, Michigan 22, Missouri 20, North Carolina 20, Oregon 21, Tennessee 24, Texas 10, Virginia 12, West Virginia 10, Wisconsin 10.

The Tilden men are very bitter against Tilden. John Killy has refused to shake hands with Congressman H. Witt, Smith M. Weed and Mayor Wickham on account of their Tilden proclivities.

A Tribune special says: S. S. Cox, since his arrival in St. Louis, has received a telegram from Washington announcing that the efforts which have been maintained for several days to bring about a compromise between the House and Senate on the appropriation bills have failed, and that it will be desirable for all democratic members of Congress in attendance on that convention to return to Washington as soon as convenient.

Old and experienced politicians who are seldom wrong in their calculations, but whose judgment may be a little shallow now by their strong anti-Tilden feeling, say they expect to see in this convention an exact repetition of that at Cincinnati. They look to see Gov. Tilden lead in the balloting, just as Mr. Blaine did, and to see the prize go to Gov. Hancock just as at Cincinnati it went to Gov. Hayes.

The market for silver at London is flat, the highest price that can be quoted is 50 1/2 d.

The European powers are again exercising pressure at Belgrade to induce Serbia to abandon its warlike attitude.

A colliery explosion took place to-day at the Rixley pit at Sheffield. Several miners were killed. Five bodies have already been recovered.

Herzegovinian chiefs will assemble at Bagnai on the 27th proximo to agree with Monte negro about their operations in case Serbia commences hostilities against Turkey.

The question whether the Durham colliers would submit to a reduction of wages or strike was decided by ballot at a large meeting of the men at Durham on Saturday. Twenty thousand of the miners favored arbitration, while sixteen thousand favored a strike. The secretary of the miners' association has consequently informed the secretary of the colliery proprietor's association that the proposed arbitration is accepted.

Austria is taking precautions for the maintenance of strict neutrality in the case of a conflict between Serbia and Turkey. It is announced on apparently good authority that Montenegro will not participate in Serbia's movement. On the contrary Prince Milan's assumption of the leadership of the Slavonian revolt is reported to have excited jealousy of the Prince of Montenegro. Rumania continues strictly neutral.

M. Gravy, President of the Chamber of Deputies, is said to have advised M. Gambetta, semi-officially, and in a friendly manner, to discontinue the practice of holding the sittings of the budget committee at the Palais Bourbon in Paris. The proceedings of the committee are creating considerable dissatisfaction. The Conservative newspapers complain of what they term its usurpations, and compare it with the committee of public safety and the Jacobin Club of the first revolution. The conservative side of the Senate anticipate a postponement of Minister Waddington's University bill until next session.

Serious difficulties are said to exist in the British Cabinet on the Eastern question, and it is intimated that the present policy is Mr. Disraeli's and not Lord Derby's. The correspondent says: "The reason why such an obstinate silence has been observed in Parliament on the policy of the government on this question is that a debate would make manifest these differences, which could not fail to prove prejudicial to the government, Lord Derby and Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, on the one hand and the Premier, Mr. Hunt, first Lord of the Admiralty, and the Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India, on the other, are widely at variance on the extremely serious point of the amount of support to be awarded Turkey by England in the event of a crisis. Every one is hoping for the best, but nobody's eyes can be closed to the alarming resemblance the present situation bears to that immediately preceding the Crimean war. If we do not this time drift into hostilities it certainly will not be owing to unity and order in the cause of peace of Mr. Disraeli's government."

In the active pursuit of pleasure or gain, the inestimable blessing of health is too often forgotten until disease is firmly seated, and the fact only realized by great bodily and mental suffering. The Liver is the vulnerable point in most persons, and the disarrangement of the organs involves almost the whole system; hence the reason why under Liver disease there is enumerated such a number of ailments, and we claim the Simmons' Liver Regulator to be a remedy for them all.
